Learn to Play Day 2020 -

FREE music lessons to take place across UK

Learn to Play Day 2020 - a free, nationwide initiative to get people of all ages and abilities playing a musical instrument - will take place on Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th March.

Supported by Jools Holland OBE, and run by charity Music for All, the event sees music shops, teachers, venues and schools throughout the UK partner with leading musical instrument brands to offer thousands of FREE music lessons across the weekend.

Since being launched nine years ago, the Learn to Play Day initiative has helped thousands of people pick up and play a musical instrument. Many had never played before, while others played as a child but gave up.

Held in partnership with the Musicians' Union, the 'Take It Away' scheme and Making Music, the Learn to Play Day initiative has been growing in popularity with a record 10,000 free lessons held during last year's event.
