

Music Tuition

Piano (Classical & Blues), Theory (Grades 1-8), Aural (Grades 1-8)
GCSE & A-Level Music (CCEA), Irish Traditional Music (various),
Music Appreciation for all historical periods, genres & forms

Declan Plummer (BMus, MA, PhD)

Monday – Saturday daytime & evening

Book your place now!

Declan is an experienced music teacher at the Ulster College of Music and City of Belfast School of Music. He is now offering a range of expert one-to-one tuition in the following areas:

- Piano in Classical and Blues styles, from absolute beginners to advanced students
- All aspects of Music Theory including grades 1-8 ABRSM, jazz theory, counterpoint & fundamental harmony
- Aural skills grades 1-8 ABRSM, for students taking any instrument who wish to develop their aural and musicianship abilities
- GCSE & A-Level Music (Northern Ireland CCEA board), with access to all scores, recordings, composition techniques and performance guidance
- Irish Traditional music for those students interested in learning uilleann pipes, tin whistle, flute, bouzouki, bodhrán (beginner to advanced)
- Music Appreciation for those students who simply love Classical music and are interested in learning about its history, genres and musical forms